

Definitions

Ethics is the process used to analyze a problem and make a decision.

Morality is a value judgment upon the decision and the process used to reach it.

Ethics is putting your values into action.

Army Ethical Decision Process (AEDP)

- Define the Problem
- Know the Rules
- Develop and evaluate courses of action
- Choose the best course of action
- Act

Four Ethical Systems

- Character
- Deontology
- Teleology
- Contextual

Conflict in Ethical Systems

What is:

Deontology Required?

Appropriate?

Teleology

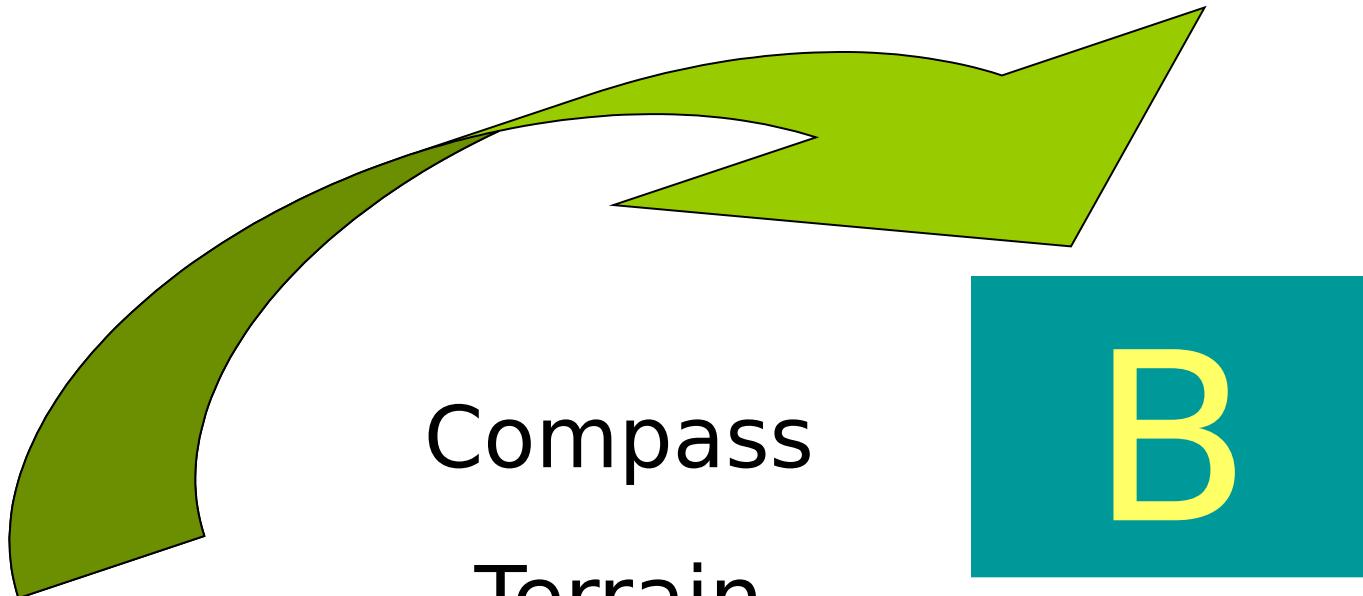

Context Correct?

Acceptable?

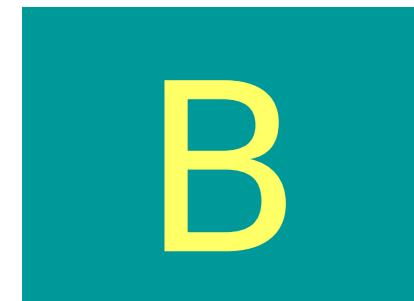

Character

Land Navigation Model of Ethical Process

Soldier on the Course

Compass

Terrain

Destination

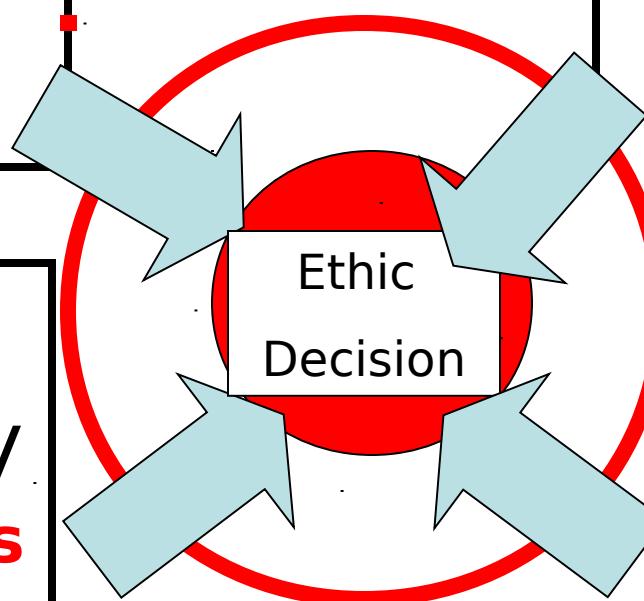

Land Navigation Ethics

Character
Beliefs
Training

Compass
Deontology
Army Values
Regulations
Orders

Terrain
Context
Situational Awareness
METT-T

Destination
Teleology
Mission
CDR Intent

What are the Issues?

- Deontology (Compass)
- Teleology (Destination)
- Context (Terrain)
- Character (Person on the Course)

Modified Army Ethical Decision Process (AEDP)

- Define the Problem
- What:
 - Is the end?
 - Are the rules/principles?
 - Is the context - what's going on/who is affected - what are the affects?
 - What does my conscience tell me?
- Develop and evaluate courses of action
- Align courses of action
- Act